Title: Aaronsburg Post Office Documents

Dates: 1894-1941

Physical Description: ca. 3,000 items; 5 boxes (45 x 30 x 23 cm, 45 x 30 x 23 cm, 40 x 28 x 13 cm, 42 x 30 x 13 cm, 33 x 26 x 18 cm). 9 items currently on display in the Historic Headsville Post Office at the American Philatelic Center.

Abstract: These documents and forms came from the Aaronsburg, Pennsylvania Post Office in Centre County. Most of the items are postal but a few are non-postal. They reflect the daily operations of the post office.

Background:

The Aaronsburg Post Office was established in 1792 in Northumberland County. In 1800, Aaronsburg became part of the newly-established Centre County. (John L. Kay and Chester M. Smith, Pennsylvania Postal History: The Post Offices and First Postmasters from 1775 to 1994, Lincoln, Mass.: Quarterman Publications, Inc., 1995.)

The town of Aaronsburg was founded in 1786 by Dutch immigrant and Orthodox Jew Aaron Levy, who hoped to create a place for harmonious living in the mainly Protestant valley. The total population in 2010 was 613.
